

CLL

In our Communication, Language and Literacy lessons, we will be reading 'The Queen's Token' by Pamela Oldfield.

This text and our topic work will help us to write our own diary entries as a Tudor era child.

We will be using skills learnt throughout the year, which include:

- Paragraphs
- Adverbs
- Prepositions
- Conjunctions
- Apostrophes for singular and plural possession
- Inverted commas

Arts & Creativity

We will look at the processes of weaving and dyeing in textiles. We will be making our own tie dye t-shirts. They will be available to take home near to the end of the half-term. Please see email communication for further information.

Mathematics

We will be:

- Understanding, collating and representing Statistics
- Telling the Time
- Reviewing place value & calculation methods with problems solving

PSHE

Our school theme for this half term is 'Changing Me'. We will be:

- expressing how we feel about babies and understand the care that they need
- describe the emotions that a new baby can bring to a family
- identify stereotypical family roles and challenge these ideas e.g. it may not always be Mum who does the laundry
- know that in animals and humans lots of changes happen between conception and growing up

Place and Time

This half-term we will be learning about The Tudors.

We will learn about how the Tudors came to the throne, the key Tudor monarchs, Henry VIII and the Reformation of religion in England.

We will use evidence to describe the differences in the past; describe clothes and buildings and the way of life and actions of people in Tudor times.

Computing

We will be presenting a biography of Henry VIII as a published piece.
